

DAN ZANES AND FRIENDS SONGBAG

WANDER IN THE SUMMER WIND

D G D A
Take a left on Kane Street, another one on Henry

D G D A
Take a look around us, for anyone we know

D G D A
The day is just a dream, I wonder what it will be

D G D A D
The morning sun can take us anywhere we want to go

A D G D A
Side by side, the streets are green and wide up the hill and down again

D G A D
Hand in hand, we'll be feeling grand when we wander in the Summer wind

I'll take you to the river, maybe down to Red Hook
Eat a few tamales over by the soccer games
Basketballs are flying over by the schoolyard
I hear the breeze call your name

High and low, people that we know
They say "Hey there," and "How've you been?"
Good, good, good and do you think you would Like to wander in the Summer wind

We can take the F train, right on up to 9th street
Walk on to the park to where steel drums play
Dance around in circles, with anyone that we meet
All this could happen on a Summer Saturday

Talk, talk, talk, resting on a rock
Where we're going and where we've been Back and forth, South to the North
When we wander in the Summer wind

When the walk is over, we'll sit out on the front steps
Laugh about our journey, and sing a song or two Cotton-eyed Joe, Do You Believe in Magic
On a lazy afternoon, almost any song will do

1,2,3, A, B, C, D, E
we'll see it all my friend
We've got time, put your hand in mine, we'll go wander in the Summer wind...

*By Dan Zanes; Sister Barbara Music ASCAP