DAN ZANES AND FRIENDS SONGBAG

HEY LITTLE RED BIRD

F Bb Ab F
Hey little red bird gone again
Up into the clouds
Bb Ab F
you're gone again
You sang a beautiful song
Bb F
but your gone gone gone
C
I'll catch up somehow

F Bb - Ab - F
Hey little chickadee
Bb - Ab - F
I'm looking for a melody
I'm on a search for a song
Bb F
it's gone gone gone
C
I need to find it somehow

F Bb Ab F
Hey little inchworm (gone again)
Maybe now it's your Bb Ab F
turn (gone again)
You don't have to be long
Bb F
to help me find my song
C
I need to hear it somehow

Bb C
Well it's morning and I think I might F Bb
Step out in the dawns early light
C
I'm looking for a song I heard
F Bb F
Fly little red bird
Bb F
Fly little red bird

I asked a fortune teller dragonfly Who just happened to be passing by
She said it wouldn't be long for that song that song
And I believed her somehow

Then I was walking down
the street at noon
Sure enough I heard
my favorite tune
I looked up in the sky and stared
There were red birds everywhere
And that song just filled the air

Hey little red bird
You were gone but now you're back here
with that song again
I love it and I'm going to sing along again
I knew that this would happen somehow

Hey little red bird
You singing little red bird
Swinging little red bird

*By Dan Zanes; Sister Barbara Music ASCAP