

DAN ZANES AND FRIENDS SONGBAG

WASHINGTON AT VALLEY FORGE

E C#7
Washington at Valley Forge freezing cold but up spoke George
F# B7 E
vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

E C#7
Crazy words, breezy tune all that he could croon and spoon
F# B7 E
was vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

G# C#7
On his ukulele, daily he would strum
F# B7
dancing and prancing then he'd holler "red hot mama"

E C#7
Crazy words, breezy tune all that George could croon and spoon
F# B7 E
vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

Lincoln was at Gettysburg these were his very words
said vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

Remember Patrick Henry when that speech, that famous speech
Give me liberty or... red hot mama!

Crazy words, breezy tune all that George could croon and swoon
was vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

Crazy words, breezy tune all that he could croon and swoon
was vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

We all wondered yesterday what did the president say
said vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe

It's the rage, it's the craze everybody sings now a days said vo-doe-de-o, vo-doe-de-o, doe vo-doe-de-o, doe

*Written in 1926 by Jack Alger